A BIG FIRE AT COWLEY

The quietude of Cowley was disturbed on Tuesday afternoon when the alarm went out that the Alberta hotel was on fire. Crowds gathered and in a very short time the house was surrounded by excited people. Smoke was seen issuing from the back. Several attempts were made to gain access to the upper flats through the front entrance, but the smoke was so dense that none could succeed. By a mere miracle the occupants, including seven small children, who were in a room on the second flat, scrambled down stairs and out to a place of safety. In less than five minutes the house was filled with flames and smoke and all hope of saving it or any of its contents was lost. Flames began to break out on all sides and the big building became enveloped in the fiery element. In the bar was a large stock of liquors in bottles and cases. When the flames reached here there came a series of violent explosions and time and again the building was seen to sway from the concussion. A gasoline tank stood below the eastern corner, to which the fire soon made a way. Then came one great burst, rending the corner and sending pieces of board flying in all directions. In less than twenty-five minutes from the start the hotel collapsed leaving nothing standing but a chimney. In the meantime fire was noticed in one corner of an annexed livery stable and attention was drawn that way. An axe-and-bucket brigade immediately made a fearless attack. Water and snow were showered upon the building and for a time there was some hope of its being saved. But, through a small opening up near the peak, a gust of flame entered and ignited the hay in the loft. Wafted by the high wind this whole block of ashes, stock and ice house was soon enveloped and beyond control. Next to take fire was the butcher shop of H. R. Parker. Trains were at hand and the stock of meats and victuals were quickly loaded up and driven away. The fire spread rapidly in the rear of the hotel and in less than five minutes the cool and smokeless firemen had reached the burning buildings. Barrels were placed on the roof of the Chronicle office and filled with an army of fighters. Located different parts of the roof kept a generous supply of water in the burning buildings till the burning buildings collapsed and the danger had passed. All the efforts of the fire fighters were not a morsel too much for the saving of these buildings. Had the fire taken the Askey buildings there would have been little hope of saving the eastern portion of the town, and had the fire taken place in the late hours of the night chances of escape for the occupants of the hotel would have been very meagre.

The fire was started by one of the children dropping a lighted match on the carpet of a room on the rear of the second flat, which very soon started a flame. The children were hurried down the stairs by the eldest sister and had a very narrow escape, for had they been left a few seconds longer they would certainly have been victims of the flames. The plight of the Doust family is pitiful. They having saved nothing and been thrown out lightly clad into the frosty mid-winter air. Friends took charge of the little ones and made them comfortable for the night.

The horses, cattle, wagons, etc., were saved, also the cash register. Everything else was burnt. Part of Mr. Doust's loss includes about $60 cash, some furniture and other articles valued in all between $800 and $900. A boarder, John Willem, who conducted the livery stable which was burnt, lost a large sum of money left in his bedroom, all his clothes and other articles. He was at North Fork when the fire started and the building was in ruins when he returned. His loss is a heavy one. Another boarder Percy Squire, lost his clothing and other articles valued about $20. The waitress, Miss Good, who came from New Michol about a fortnight ago, lost her clothing and a gold watch.

Henry Parker, butcher, had just the day previous placed in a supply of victuals and meats, and succeeded in getting all out before the building burnt. We learn the store belonged to W. E. Eldy.

The hotel, which was one of the oldest and largest buildings in the town, belonged to Mrs. Drew, of Coleman, and was under lease to Thos. Hoare & Co., Pincher Creek, and managed by F. W. Doust. The building with its furnishings and outhouses were valued at over $5,000. In the dining

W. P. Harrison registered at the Cowley hotel Monday and returned to Edmonton Tuesday.

Twelve men were engaged by the council Tuesday night to guard against the spread of the fire.

A. H. Gunn arrived from Calgary Monday to attend council nominations and returned again Tuesday.

Several cars were loaded from the elevator here this week. The price of grain has risen considerably.

Many persons had narrow escapes from flying timber and buckets at the fire on Tuesday. But no one was injured.

A meeting of ratepayers will take place to-night in the office of Tweedy Bros. to appoint a school trustee to replace A. H. Gunn, resigned.

Mr. Paterson, of the Union Bank, has been transferred to the branch at Calgary, near Calgary, and leaves for there shortly. He is to be replaced by Mr. Orchard.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never disappoints those who use it for chronic coughs, colds and irritations of the throat and lung diseases. Sold by dealers everywhere.

The nomination for the district of Cowley took place at the office of Tweedy Bros. on Monday evening last. The following were nominated: A. H. Knight, H. D. McMillan, H. C. Morrison, P. J. Riddell, H. R. Parker.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a very valuable medicine for throat and lung troubles, quickly relieves and cures painful breathing and a dangerously sounding cough which indicates congested lungs. Sold by dealers everywhere.

The meeting announced, to take place in the parish room of the new Anglican church Tuesday night, to discuss the formation of a club, had to be postponed owing to the fire, and will take place next Tuesday at 8 p.m. All interested are requested to attend.

Have you a weak throat? If so, you cannot be too careful. You cannot begin treating too early. Each cold makes you more liable to another and the last is always the harder to cure. If you will take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the outset you will be saved much trouble. Sold by dealers everywhere.

A CHALLENGE

I, the undersigned, hereby challenge the six men who are alleged to have drunk twenty two four gallon kegs of beer at Coleman on Xmas day 1909, to come to Cowley and perform the same feat, the loser to pay for the beer together with a side bet of $100.

K. R. HENNS.

Witness: E. B. Thompson.

A social was held in the Baptist church in Blairmore on Wednesday evening and was a great success. A splendid program was rendered.

The loss of the Alberta hotel is a heavy set-back to the forward strides of the town. The place has been a popular resort, and the genial hospitality had always won popular favor.

A bucket brigade was engaged by the council to watch the embers till morning. The high wind at night kept the brands bright and flying, and an uneasy night was spent by those in that neighborhood.

THE WESTERN ELEVATOR CAPACITY
The remarkable expansion of the grain growing industry in Western Canada is more clearly evidenced than probably in any other way, by the enormous increase in the elevator storage capacity of the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, during the past few years.

The report of the warehouse commissioner, showing the increase in terminal and eastern transfer elevator capacity has been issued, and contains a great deal of interesting information. The increase in the elevator capacity of Alberta is practically striking and although as yet this province is away behind Saskatchewan and Manitoba in this respect, owing to the earlier settlement of those provinces, the percentage increase in new elevators is much greater.

The report shows that in the provinces west of Winnipeg, where elevator storage has been erected; that 1,700 elevators are in active operation and that there is a storage capacity of 5,123,000 bushels, or an increase of 11,07,000 bushels. Of this general increase Alberta is credited with 50 stations, where new elevators have been erected; 119 new elevators and an increase in capacity of 3,093,000 bushels.
This is an increase in capacity of over 90 per cent for the year, or almost double. The number of elevators increased from 109 to 228 while there were only three grain warehouses erected in the province during the year. This would indicate that the grain companies have the fullest confidence in the permanent rapid increase in grain growing and are building large, up to date facilities for handling it.

Experts in elevator building figure that the cost of elevators at about an average of 27 cent per bushel capacity varying slightly according to size. In a number of instances, however, the elevators erected have been special buildings and these cost about 30 cents to 35 cents per bushel capacity to erect. This means that considerably over $1,000,000 have been invested this year in the erection of the new elevators in Alberta.

The elevator capacity of Alberta is now about 31.4 times that of whole of the north west territories. In the year 1900-1 and is nearly equal to that of the whole north west in 1905, when Alberta was made a province. In this connection a few figures showing the expansion may be of interest.

Year	Whole Capacity
N. W. T. 1900-01	100 2,437,080
N. W. T. 1901-02	129 3,104,000
N. W. T. 1902-03	100 2,437,080
N. W. T. 1903-04	279 7,997,000
N. W. T. 1904-05	311 8,094,000
Alberta 1905-06	45 1,715,500
Alberta 1906-07	81 2,786,500
Alberta 1907-08	115 3,818,000
Alberta 1908-09	123 4,062,000
Alberta 1909-10	245 8,093,000

Since 1905 the elevator capacity in Saskatchewan has increased from 8, 651,000 bushels to 24,370,000 bushels.
The increase in Manitoba is not so marked owing to that province having been already fairly well provided with elevators. In 1905 the storage capacity in that province was 20,050, 100 and in 1909, 21,024,000 bushels.
The increase in terminal elevator capacity at Fort William and Port Arthur for the year was 3,983,000 bushels, making a total of 25,157,000 bushels terminal storage capacity. The cost of erecting terminal storage is roughly estimated at 35 cents per bushel, which makes an investment for the year of $1,077,225, or a total investment for interior elevators and terminal storage of over $1,000,000.

Eastern transfer storage was also increased during the year by 1,500,000 and the total capacity for grain storage in Canada is now 98,016,000. It is expected that with the new elevators now under construction that within six months the storage for Canadian grain will reach one hundred million bushels.

The above figures are especially interesting as showing the great stride being made in the line of providing storage capacity for Canada's grain and it is particularly the two western provinces of Alberta and Saskachewan that are contributing to this remarkable expansion. This rate of increase is expected to continue in as great of an even greater ratio for the next decade.

COLEMAN WINS

AT HOCKEY

Moyle Plays Fine Hockey--o-cals Too Clever For Them.

The Coleman boys demonstrated that they can play hockey and also gave proof that if they had more practice they could defeat any good team in Alberta. Combination work, however, was lacking in this case due to the season and the lack of having practised together.

There was some delay in getting the players started but at 8:45 the puck was skimming from player to player in a lively gallop. At first Moyle pressed hard on Coleman's goal and the home defense were kept busy. Higgins stopped a large number of sure winners and White steered the dark object many times from dangerous points.

Moyle scored two goals in the first fifteen minutes, Gill shooting them both. One of the Moyle players' skates became broken and a short intermission was allowed. Time seemed to brace up the boys and when the puck was again commenced moving it had great difficulty in keeping out of Moyle's corner. Three goals were scored by Sherman and Ellis. The large crowd now gave vent to their feelings and cheered the boys on. At half-time the score was 5-2 in Coleman's favor.

The playing after half-time was more even and every foot was contested. Moyle scored another goal by good combination work and a few minutes after scored another. This enlivened matters and the checking became more pronounced. Moyle again shot on the goal but the referee declared that the puck never touched the net and after a good deal of wrangling his decision was upheld.

The Coleman players now got down and played together and in quick time three more goals were scored, Sherman, Bert White and McWha doing the honors. Bert White shot from home into Moyle's net. This evoked loud cheers and Moyle became demoralized. The play for the next few minutes was not so fast, the players evidently were taking a second wind. Ellis shot another goal for Coleman and the score remained 9-4 for the game.

There have been only two league games played so far. Ferrie won by Moyle 5-3 and the other has just been chronicled.

Some time ago Choo Luck, a Chinese laundryman in the employ of C. O'neer, voluntarily laid down his life amongst the reeds and rushes adjoining the bank of the Old Man river.

"I, Choo Luck having tasted of the pleasures and pains of this worldly world, do hereby solemnly declare that man is made in vain and life is a dream. With the courage and spirit of my forefathers, I do not hesitate to tear off this mortal coil and gather my oriental robes about my loins and abdicate. May the spirit of Confucius have mercy on my soul."
